

Living an Indulged Life

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. /
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love. / Where there is injury, pardon. / Where there is doubt, faith. / Where there is despair, hope. / Where there is darkness, light. / Where there is sadness, joy. / O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console, / to be understood as to understand, / to be loved as to love, / for it is in giving that we receive, / it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, / and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Dear Lord, we pray that the Blessed Mother / wrap her mantle around Your priests / and through her intercession / strengthen them for their ministry. / We pray that Mary will guide
 Your priests to follow her own words, “Do whatever He tells you” (Jn 2:5). / May Your priests have the heart of St. Joseph, / Mary’s most chaste spouse. / May the Blessed Mother’s own pierced heart / inspire them to embrace all who suffer at the foot of the cross. /
 May Your priests be holy, / filled with the fire of Your love, / seeking nothing but Your greater glory and the salvation of souls. Amen.

St. John Vianney ... / pray for us.

SERRAN PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

O God, Who wills not the death of a sinner, / but rather that he be converted and live. / Grant we beseech You / through the intercession of the Blessed Mary ever Virgin, / Saint Joseph her spouse, / Saint Junipero Serra / and all the saints, / an increase of laborers for Your Church, / fellow laborers to spend and consume themselves for souls, / through the same Jesus Christ, Your Son, / Who lives and reigns with You in the unity of the Holy Spirit, / one God forever and ever.

PRAYER FOR A STEWARDSHIP PARISH

My parish is composed of people like me. / I help make it what it is. / It will be friendly if I am.
 / It will be holy if I am. / Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. / It will do great work if I work. / It will be prayerful if I pray. / It will make generous gifts to many causes if I am a generous giver. /
 It will bring others into its worship if I invite and bring them. / It will be a parish of loyalty and love, / of fearlessness and faith, / of compassion, charity and mercy, / if I, who make it what it is, am filled with these same things. /
 Therefore, with the help of God, / I now dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be.

INTRODUCTION

“Lord, teach us how to pray” (John 1:16). With these words the apostles asked Jesus to teach them how to speak to his Father as Jesus did. Jesus’ reply was the Our Father. The fundamental attitude of prayer is childlike trust in a Father who loves us as his very dear children. Prayer is not “technique,” nor is it a “posture”; prayer is an act of love from a child to his or her heavenly Father.

Just as our spirit is housed in a body, our acts of love are “housed” in the words of prayer. The Our Father, the foundation of all vocal prayer, is first an act of love; the words are its vehicle. All words of Christian prayer are effective only insofar as they “house” the love of our heart.

And the human heart expresses its love in various ways—adoration, love, thanksgiving, and petition (asking)—in order to receive love in return. We remember this by the word A.L.T.A.R. —Adore, Love, Thank, Ask, Receive. The words of our prayers take on the various shapes of our desires. Therefore, there are many types of prayers, but all of them must express the fundamental act of love: humble trust of a child to his or her heavenly Father.

The Church, through her saints, has handed on many, many prayers to capture the various desires and movements of the heart. Some of these prayers are so fundamental that the Church has proclaimed some of them to be “exemplars” of prayer. These prayers are found in the Handbook of Indulgences. Indulgences are the various actions and prayers that the Church highlights as basic, constitutive elements of a life of prayer. Indulgences are “grace upon grace” (John 1:16) such that one who patterns his life on indulgences thereby patterns his life on the model of the saints.

The primary purpose of this book is to be an education on the words of prayer. It presents all of the indulgenced verbal prayers in a one-week cycle, broken up according to days. The days are dedicated to various Christian mysteries. A person who flips through this book will see many different forms, and words, of prayer.

It is my hope that you find inspiration in this book to find a new rhythm of prayer, learn the basic foundations of prayers, and find new ways to direct your heart to the Lord in the act of love. If we do these things, then we will have learned from the Lord “how to pray.”

THE PURPOSE OF THIS DOCUMENT

The purpose of this document is to turn the Manual of Indulgences into a day-to-day rhythm of prayer and spiritual discipline. All indulgences found in the Manual that are verbal prayers (except the Prayers of the Eastern Church) are organized into a one-week cycle.

All indulgences in this book are referenced to:

Manual of Indulgences: Norms and Grants
by the Apostolic Penitentiary
Translated into English from the fourth edition (1999)
of Enchiridion Indulgentiarum: Normae et Concessionones;
United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, Washington, DC

A complete explanation of the norms of indulgences can be found in the Manual of Indulgences.

All indulgences in this document are numbered according to the Manual of Indulgences, either by page number (p. #) or paragraph number (#). Any prayers not designated by a page number (p. #) or a paragraph number (#) are not indulgenced prayers. Some are taken from popular piety; others are taken from the Roman Missal.

Other prayers and sacramental rituals are added to this document because they are used in the devotional and sacramental life of St. Francis of Assisi parishioners.

ROSARY (17.1)

A plenary indulgence is granted to the faithful who devoutly recite the Marian Rosary in a church or oratory, or in a family, a religious community, or an association of the faithful, and in general when several of the faithful gather for some honest purpose; or devoutly join in the recitation of the Rosary while it is being recited by the Supreme Pontiff and broadcast live by radio or television. In other circumstances, the indulgence will be partial.

Let us say this Rosary for the intentions of the Holy Father, the Holy Souls in Purgatory, Conversion of Poor Sinners, Peace in the World and our own intentions.

ON THE CROSS - APOSTLES CREED (CREDO IN DEUM) (28.2.2)

I believe in God, / the Father Almighty / creator of heaven and earth / and in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, / who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, / born of the Virgin Mary, / suffered under Pontius Pilate, / was crucified, died, and was buried. / He descended into hell. / On the third day he rose again from the dead. / He ascended into heaven / and is seated at the right hand of God, / the Father Almighty. / He will come again in glory / to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, / the Holy Catholic Church, / the communion of saints, / the forgiveness of sins, / the resurrection of the body, / and the life everlasting.

Credo in Deum Patrem omnipotentem, / Creatorem cæli et terræ. / Et in Iesum Christum, / Filium eius unicum, Dominum nostrum, / qui conceptus est de Spiritu Sancto, / natus ex Maria Virgine, / passus sub Póntio Pilato, / crucifixus, mortuus, et sepultus, descendit ad infernos, / tertia die resurrexit a mortuis, / ascendit ad cælos, / sedet ad dexteram Dei Patris omnipotentis, / inde venturus est iudicare vivos et mortuos. / Credo in Spiritum Sanctum, / sanctam Ecclesiam catholicam, / sanctorum communionem, / remissionem peccatorum, / carnis resurrectionem, / vitam æternam.

ON LARGE BEADS - OUR FATHER (PATER NOSTER)

Our Father, Who art in heaven, / Hallowed be Thy Name. / Thy Kingdom come. / Thy Will be done, / on earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. / And forgive us our trespasses, / as we forgive those who trespass against us. / And lead us not into temptation, / but deliver us from evil. / Amen.

Pater noster, / qui es in caelis, / sanctificetur nomen tuum. / Adveniat regnum tuum. / Fiat voluntas tua, / sicut in caelo et in terra. / Panem nostrum quotidianum da nobis hodie, / et dimitte nobis debita nostra, / sicut et nos dimittimus debitoribus nostris. / Et ne nos inducas in tentationem: / sed libera nos a malo.

(OPTION 1) ON THE FIRST THREE SMALL BEADS - HAIL MARY (AVE MARIA)

For an increase in the virtue of faith...

Hail Mary, full of grace, / the Lord is with you, / blessed are you among women / and blessed is the fruit of your womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, / pray for us sinners, now, / and at the hour of death.

Ave María, gratia plena, / Dominus tecum. / Benedicta tu in mulieribus, / et benedictus fructus ventris tui, Iesus. / Sancta María, Mater Dei, / ora pro nobis peccatoribus, nunc, / et in hora mortis nostrae.

For an increase in the virtue of hope...

Hail Mary...

For an increase in the virtue of love...

Hail Mary...

(OPTION 2) ON THE FIRST THREE SMALL BEADS- ACTS OF FAITH, HOPE, AND LOVE

ACT OF FAITH (28.2.2)

For an increase in the virtue of faith...

O Lord God, / I firmly believe each and every single truth / which the Holy Catholic Church teaches / because you have revealed them all, / who art eternal Truth and Wisdom, / who can neither deceive nor be deceived. / In this faith I intend to live and die.

Domine Deus, / firma fide credo et confiteor omnia et singula / quæ sancta ecclesia Catholica proponit, / quia tu, Deus, ea omnia revelasti, / qui es aeterna veritas et sapientia / quæ nec fallere nec falli potest. / In hac fide vivere et mori statuo.

ACT OF HOPE (28.2.2)

For an increase in the virtue of hope...

O Lord God, / I hope by your grace / for the pardon of all my sins / and after life here to gain eternal happiness / because you have promised it / who are infinitely powerful, / faithful, / kind, / and merciful. / In this hope I intend to live and die.

Domine Deus, / spero per gratiam tuam remissionem omnium peccatorum, / et post hanc vitam aeternam felicitatem me esse consecuturum: / quia tu promisisti, / qui es infinite potens, / fidelis, / benignus, / et misericors. / In hac spe vivere et mori statuo.

ACT OF LOVE (CHARITY) (28.2.2)

For an increase in the virtue of love...

O Lord God, / I love you above all things / and I love my neighbor for your sake / because you are the highest, / infinite, / and perfect good, / worthy of all my love. / In this love I intend to live and die.

Domine Deus, / amo te super omnia / proximum meum propter te, / quia tu es summum, / infinitum, / et perfectissimum bonum, / omni dilectione dignum. / In hac caritate vivere et mori statuo.

ON LARGE BEADS AT THE END OF A DECADE -

GLORY BE (GLORIA PATRI)

Glory to the Father / and to the Son / and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, / is now / and ever shall be, world without end.

Gloria Patri, / et Filio, / et Spiritui Sancto, / Sicut erat in principio, / et nunc, / et semper, / et in saecula saeculorum.

O MY JESUS (FATIMA PRAYER)

O my Jesus, forgive us our sins. / Save us from the fires of hell. / Lead all souls to Heaven, / especially those in most need of Thy mercy.

Domine Iesu, dimitte nobis debita nostra, salva nos ab igne inferni, perduc in caelum omnes animas, praesertim eas, quae misericordiae tuae maxime indigent.

THE FIVE JOYFUL MYSTERIES (Said on Monday and Saturday)

THE FIRST JOYFUL MYSTERY, ANNUNCIATION (HUMILITY)

“And when the angel had come to her, he said, ‘Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Blessed art thou among women.’” - Luke 1:28

Sweet Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Annunciation, / when the angel Gabriel appeared to you with the tidings / that you were to become the Mother of God, / greeting you with that sublime salutation, “Hail, full of grace! The Lord is with you,” / and you humbly submitted yourself to the will of the Father, / responding, “Behold the handmaid of the Lord. Be it done unto me according to your word.”

Our Father ...

10 Hail Marys

Glory be to the Father ...

O My Jesus ...

THE SECOND JOYFUL MYSTERY, VISITATION (LOVE OF NEIGHBOR)

“Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit and cried out in a loud voice: ‘Blessed are thou among women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.’” - Luke 1:41-42

Sweet Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Visitation, / when upon your visit to your holy cousin Elizabeth, / she greeted you with the prophetic utterance, “Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb,” / and you answered with the canticle of canticles, the Magnificat.

THE THIRD JOYFUL MYSTERY, BIRTH OF JESUS (LOVE OF GOD)

“She gave birth to her first-born son and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes and laid Him in a manger, because there was no room for them in the place where travelers lodged.” - Luke 2:7

Sweet Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Nativity of our Lord, / when your time being completed, / you brought forth the Redeemer of the World in a stable in Bethlehem, / whereupon choirs of angels filled the Heavens with the exultant song praise, “Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men of good will.”

THE FOURTH JOYFUL MYSTERY, PRESENTATION OF JESUS IN THE TEMPLE (PURITY OF HEART AND BODY)

“When the day came to purify them according to the law of Moses, the couple brought Him up to Jerusalem so that He could be presented to the Lord, for it is written in the law of the Lord, ‘Every first-born male shall be consecrated to the Lord.’” - Luke 2:22-23

Sweet Mother Mary, / meditating on Mystery of the Presentation of our Lord, / when in obedience to the Law of Moses, / you presented your Son in the Temple, / where the holy prophet Simeon, taking the child in his arms, / offered thanks to God for allowing him to look upon his Savior / and foretold your suffering by the words, “Your soul also a sword shall pierce.”

THE FIFTH JOYFUL MYSTERY, FINDING JESUS IN THE TEMPLE (TRUST AND JOY IN JESUS)

“On the third day they came upon Him in the temple sitting in the midst of the teachers, listening to them and asking them questions.” - Luke 2:46

Sweet Mother Mary, / meditating on Mystery of the Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple, / when after sorrowfully seeking your lost Son for three days, / you discovered Him in the Temple speaking with the teachers / and upon your request He obediently returned home with you and Joseph.

THE FIVE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES (Said on Tuesday and Friday)

THE FIRST SORROWFUL MYSTERY, AGONY IN THE GARDEN (CONTRITION)

“In His anguish He prayed with all the greater intensity, and His sweat became like drops of blood falling to the ground. Then He rose from prayer and came to His disciples, only to find them asleep, exhausted with grief.” - Luke 22:44-45

O most sorrowful Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Agony of Our Lord in the Garden, / when in the Garden of Olives, your Son saw the sins of the world unfolded before Him, / and His precious blood flowed from every pore at the vision of the torture and death He was to undergo, / and He cried in anguish, “Abba! Father! If it be possible, let this chalice pass from me,” / but immediately resigning Himself to his Father’s will, He said, “Not as I will, but as You will.”

Our Father ...

10 Hail Marys

Glory be to the Father ...

O My Jesus ...

THE SECOND SORROWFUL MYSTERY, SCOURGING AT THE PILLAR (PENITENCE)

“Pilate’s next move was to take Jesus and have him scourged. And the soldiers twisted together a crown of thorns and put it on His head, and put a purple robe on Him.” - John 19:1-2

O most sorrowful Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Scourging of Our Lord, / when at Pilate’s command your Son was stripped of His garments, / and was bound to a pillar, / His body lacerated from head to foot with cruel whips, / and His flesh torn away until His mortified body could bear no more.

THE THIRD SORROWFUL MYSTERY, CROWNING WITH THORNS (COURAGE)

“They stripped off His clothes and wrapped Him in a scarlet military cloak. Weaving a crown out of thorns they fixed it on His head and stuck a reed in His right hand.” - Matthew 27:28-30

O most sorrowful Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Crowning of Our Lord with Thorns, / when the soldiers bound about your Son’s head a crown of sharp thorns, / showered blows upon Him to drive the thorns deeply into His head, / and in mock adoration knelt before Him crying, “Hail, King of the Jews.”

THE FOURTH SORROWFUL MYSTERY, CARRYING OF THE CROSS (PATIENCE)

“They took Jesus, therefore, and He went out, bearing His own cross, to the place called the Place of the Skull, which is called Golgotha in Hebrew.” - John 19:17

O most sorrowful Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Carrying of the Cross, / when with the heavy wood of the cross upon His shoulders, / your Son was dragged, / weak and suffering yet patient, / through the streets of Jerusalem to the hill of Calvary, / falling often but urged along by the cruel blows of his executioners and the revilement of the crowd.

THE FIFTH SORROWFUL MYSTERY, CRUCIFIXION OF JESUS (PERSEVERANCE)

“Jesus uttered a loud cry and said, ‘Father, into your hands I commend my spirit.’ After He said this, He expired.” - Luke 23:44

O most sorrowful Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Crucifixion, / when your Son was stripped of his garments, / nailed to the cross and died after three hours of indescribable agony, / during which He asked, “Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do.”

THE FIVE LUMINOUS MYSTERIES (Said on Thursday)

THE FIRST LUMINOUS MYSTERY, BAPTISM OF JESUS (INSPIRATION)

“After Jesus was baptized, He came directly out of the water. Suddenly the sky opened and He saw the Spirit of God descend like a dove and hover over Him. With that, a voice from the heavens said, ‘This is My beloved Son. My favor rests on Him.’” - Matthew 3:16-17

O courageous Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Baptism of Jesus in the Jordan River, / when your Son, / as an example to all, / insisted on being baptized by His cousin John / and the sky opened and the Holy Spirit came down to Him like a dove, / and a voice from Heaven said, “You are My own dear Son in Whom I am well pleased.”

Our Father ...

10 Hail Marys

Glory be to the Father ...

O My Jesus ...

THE SECOND LUMINOUS MYSTERY, WEDDING AT CANA (DOCILITY)

“There was a wedding at Cana in Galilee, and the Mother of Jesus was there. At a certain point the wine ran out, and Jesus’ mother told him, ‘They have no more wine.’ His mother instructed those waiting on tables, ‘Do whatever He tells you.’” - John 2:1-5

O courageous Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Wedding Feast at Cana, / when at your urging, / your Son performed the first of His many miracles by helping a couple celebrate their marriage, / by changing water into wine of such quality / that the chief steward upbraided the host by saying, “Usually people serve the best wine first and save the cheaper wine for last, / but you have saved the choice wine for last.”

THE THIRD LUMINOUS MYSTERY, PROCLAMATION OF THE KINGDOM (EVANGELIZATION)

“Jesus appeared in Galilee proclaiming the good news of God: ‘This is the time of fulfillment. The reign of God is at hand! Reform your lives and believe in the Gospel!’” - Mark 1:14-15

O courageous Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Proclamation of the Kingdom of God, / when your Son revealed that the reign of God has already begun “within us,” / and that we are called to conversion and forgiveness, / praying “your Kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in Heaven.”

THE FOURTH LUMINOUS MYSTERY, TRANSFIGURATION OF JESUS (SANCTIFICATION)

“Jesus took Peter, James and his brother John and led them up on a high mountain by themselves. He was transfigured before their eyes. His face became as dazzling as the sun, His clothes as radiant as light.” - Matthew 17:1-2

O courageous Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Transfiguration, / when your Son revealed His glory to His three disciples, / appearing on a mountain with Moses and Elijah, / His face shining like the sun and a voice from Heaven proclaiming, “This is My beloved Son. Listen to Him.”

THE FIFTH LUMINOUS MYSTERY, INSTITUTION OF THE EUCHARIST (EUCHARISTIC DEVOTION)

“Taking bread and giving thanks, He broke it and gave it to them saying; ‘This is My Body to be given for you. Do this as a remembrance of Me.’ He did the same with the cup after eating, saying as He did so: ‘This cup is the new covenant in My blood, which will be shed for you.’” - Luke 22:19-20

O courageous Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Institution of the Sacrament of the Eucharist, / when on the day before He died, / your Son celebrated the Passover with His disciples, / and took bread and gave it to them saying, / “Take and eat ... this is My body,” / and when dinner was finished He took a cup of wine and shared it with them, saying, / “Take and drink ... this is My blood, which will be given up for you; do this in memory of Me.”

THE FIVE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES (Said on Sunday and Wednesday)

THE FIRST GLORIOUS MYSTERY, RESURRECTION OF JESUS (FAITH)

“You need not be amazed! You are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, the One who was crucified. He has been raised up; He is not here. See the place where they laid Him.” - Mark 16:6

O glorious Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Resurrection of Our Lord, / when on the morning of the third day after His death and burial, / your Son arose from the dead as He had promised, / and later appeared to you and His disciples, / filling all your hearts with unspeakable joy.

Our Father ...

10 Hail Marys

Glory be to the Father ...

O My Jesus ...

THE SECOND GLORIOUS MYSTERY, ASCENSION OF JESUS (HOPE)

“Then, after speaking to them, the Lord Jesus was taken up into Heaven and took His seat at God’s right hand.” - Mark 16:19

O glorious Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Ascension of Our Lord, / when after spending forty days on earth after His Resurrection, / showing them in many ways that He was still alive and speaking to them about the Kingdom of God, / your Son went with His disciples to a mountaintop, / where He promised to be with them always and then ascended before their eyes into Heaven.

THE THIRD GLORIOUS MYSTERY, DESCENT OF THE HOLY SPIRIT (ZEAL)

“All were filled with the Holy Spirit. They began to express themselves in foreign tongues and make bold proclamations as the Spirit prompted them.” - Acts 2:4

O glorious Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of the Descent of the Holy Spirit on Pentecost, / when the disciples, / including you dear Mother, / were assembled in an upper room in Jerusalem, / and the Holy Spirit descended upon all of you in the form of fiery tongues, / inflaming your hearts with the fire of divine love, / teaching you all truths / and giving you the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety and fear of the Lord.

THE FOURTH GLORIOUS MYSTERY, ASSUMPTION OF MARY (GRACE OF A HOLY DEATH)

“A great sign appeared in the sky: a woman clothed with the sun, with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.” - Revelation 12:1

O glorious Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of your Assumption into Heaven, / when, consumed with the desire to be united with your Son in Heaven, / your soul departed your body and united itself to Him, / who, out of the love He bore for you, / the woman who was His first tabernacle, / caused your body to be assumed into Heaven / and miraculously reunited with your soul amidst the acclaim of the angels and saints.

THE FIFTH GLORIOUS MYSTERY, CORONATION OF MARY (GREATER LOVE FOR THE BLESSED MOTHER)

“You are the glory of Jerusalem ... you are the splendid boast of our people. God is pleased with what you have wrought. May you be blessed by the Lord Almighty forever and ever.” - Judith 15:9-10

O glorious Mother Mary, / meditating on the Mystery of your Coronation, / when upon being taken up to Heaven after your death, / you were triply crowned as the august Queen of Heaven and Earth by God the Father as His beloved daughter, / by God the Son as His dearest mother, / and by God the Holy Spirit as His chosen spouse, / and you became the most perfect adorer of the Blessed Trinity, / pleading our cause as our most powerful and merciful Blessed Mother.

ACT OF CONTRITION (9.2)

Sirach Prayer (9.2)^v (Sirach 22: 27–23:6)

Who will set a guard over my mouth, / and upon my lips an effective seal, / that I may not fail through them, / that my tongue may not destroy me? / LORD, Father and Master of my life, / permit me not to fall by them! / Who will apply the lash to my thoughts, / to my mind the rod of discipline, / that my failings may not be spared, / nor the sins of my heart overlooked; / Lest my failings increase, / and my sins be multiplied; / Lest I succumb to my foes, / and my enemy rejoice over me? / LORD, Father and God of my life, / abandon me not into their control! / A brazen look allow me not; / ward off passion from my heart, / let not the lustful cravings of the flesh master me, / surrender me not to shameless desires.

PRAYERS OF ABSOLUTION

May Almighty God have mercy on us (me), / forgive us (me) our (my) sins, and bring us (me) to life everlasting.

Misereatur mei omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis meis, perducat me ad vitam aeternam. Amen

May the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ, / the intercession of the Blessed Virgin / and of all the saints, / whatever good we (I) do / and suffering we (I) endure, / heal our (my) sins, / help us (me) to grow in holiness, / and reward us (me) with eternal life.

PRAYER AT THE POINT OF DEATH (IN ARTICULO MORTIS) (12)

Also called the apostolic pardon, this plenary indulgence is a complete remission of the temporal punishment due to sin. A priest should not fail to administer this great blessing to a person nearing death. The faithful should frequently be made aware of this great blessing of the Church.

If a priest is unavailable at the time of a person's death, Holy Mother Church grants this blessing to the Christian faithful who, properly disposed, have had a habit of reciting some prayer throughout their lifetime. In such an instance the Church supplies for the three conditions normally associated to acquiring a plenary indulgence. The use of a crucifix is strongly encouraged.

The dismissal formula at Night Prayer should call to mind this indulgence.

May the All-powerful Lord grant us a restful night.../ and a peaceful death.

PRAYER BY ST. THOMAS AQUINAS IN THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, / who deigned to feast me, / sinful and unworthy servant, / with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, / not for any merit of mine, / but only because of your merciful goodness. / And I pray that this Holy Communion, / far from condemning me to punishment, / may bring about my pardon and salvation, / encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. / By it let my vices be done away, / all lustful desires extinguished. / May it advance me in charity, / patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. / Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, / allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, / binding me firmly to you, the one true God, / and bringing my last hour to a happy close. / I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day / to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, / where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, / feast your saints with the vision of yourself, / who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, / the joy that knows no ending, / gladness unalloyed, / and perfect bliss.

PRAYER OF ST. AMBROSE

Lord Jesus Christ, / I approach Thy banquet table in fear and trembling, / for I am a sinner, and dare not rely on my own worth, / but only on Thy goodness and mercy. / I am defiled by my many sins in body and soul, / and by my unguarded thoughts and words. / Gracious God of majesty and awe, / I seek Thy protection, / I look for Thy healing. / Poor troubled sinner that I am, / I appeal to Thee, / the fountain of all mercy. / I cannot bear Thy judgment, / but I trust in Thy salvation. / Lord, I show my wounds to Thee / and uncover my shame before Thee. / I know my sins are many and great, / and they fill me with fear, / but I hope in Thy mercies, / for they cannot be numbered.

Lord Jesus Christ, / Eternal King, God and man, / crucified for mankind, / look upon me with mercy and hear my prayer, / for I trust in Thee. / Have mercy on me, full of sorrow and sin, / for the depth of Thy compassion never ends.

Praise to Thee saving sacrifice, / offered on the wood of the cross for me and for all mankind. / Praise to the noble and precious Blood, / flowing from the wounds of my crucified Lord Jesus Christ / and washing away the sins of the whole world.

Remember, Lord, Thy creature, / whom Thou hast redeemed with Thy blood; / I repent of my sins, / and I long to put right what I have done. / Merciful Father, take away all my offenses and sins; / purify me in body and soul, / and make me worthy to taste the Holy of Holies. / May Thy Body and Blood, / which I intend to receive, although I am unworthy, / be for me the remission of my sins, / the washing away of my guilt, / the end of my evil thoughts, / and the rebirth of my better instincts. / May it incite me to do the works pleasing to Thee, / and a firm defense of body and soul / against the wiles of my enemies.

Miserere mei, Deus, secundum magnam misericordiam tuam; et secundum multitudinem miserationum tuarum, dele iniquitatem meam. / Amplius lava me ab iniquitate mea: et a peccato meo munda me. / Quoniam iniquitatem meam ego cognosco, et peccatum meum contra me est semper. / Tibi soli peccavi, et malum coram te feci; ut justificeris in sermonibus tuis, et vincas cum judicaris. / Ecce enim in iniquitatibus conceptus sum: et in peccatis concepit me mater mea. / Ecce enim veritatem dilexisti; incerta et occulta sapientiae tuae manifestasti mihi. / Asperges me hyssopo, et mundabor; lavabis me, / et super nivem dealabor. / Auditui meo dabis gaudium et laetitiam: et exsultabunt ossa humiliata. / Averte faciem tuam a peccatis meis, et omnes iniquitates meas dele. / Cor mundum crea in me, Deus, et spiritum rectum innova in visceribus meis. / Ne projicias me a facie tua, et spiritum sanctum tuum ne auferas a me. / Redde mihi laetitiam salutaris tui, et spiritu principali confirma me. / Docebo iniquos vias tuas, et impii ad te convertentur. / Libera me de sanguinibus, Deus, Deus salutis meae, et exsultabit lingua mea / justitiam tuam. / Domine, labia mea aperies, et os meum annuntiabit laudem tuam. / Quoniam si voluisses sacrificium, dedissem utique; holocaustis non delectaberis. / Sacrificium Deo spiritus contribulatus; cor contritum et humiliatum, Deus, non despicias. / Benigne fac, Domine, in bona voluntate tua Sion, ut aedificentur muri Jerusalem. / Tunc acceptabis sacrificium justitiae, / oblationes et holocausta; tunc imponent super altare tuum vitulos.

PRAYER OF ST. THOMAS IN PREPARATION FOR MASS

Almighty and ever-lasting God, / I approach the sacrament of Thy only-begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ.
/ I come sick to the doctor of life, / unclean to the fountain of mercy, / blind to the radiance of eternal light,
/ and poor and needy to the Lord of heaven and earth. / Therefore, I implore Thee in Thy great generosity, / to heal my sickness, / to wash away my defilement, / enlighten my blindness, / to enrich my poverty, / and to clothe my nakedness, / so that I may receive the bread of angels, / the King of kings, and the Lord of lords / with reverence and humility, / with contrition and devotion, / with purity and faith, / and with such purpose and determination / that will be expedient to the salvation of my soul. / Grant me, I beseech Thee, / that I may not only receive the Sacrament of the Body and Blood of the Lord, / but also the reality and power of the Sacrament. / O most kind God, grant that I may receive the Body of Thine only-begotten Son, / our Lord Jesus Christ, born of the Virgin Mary, / and so received that I may be worthy to be incorporated into His mystical body, / and numbered among His members. / O most loving Father, grant me Thy beloved Son, / which I now receive under the veil of a sacrament, / that I may one day behold Him face to face in glory, / Who lives and reigns with Thee in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God, forever.

PRAYER BY ST. THOMAS AQUINAS IN THANKSGIVING AFTER MASS

I thank you, holy Lord, almighty Father, eternal God, / who deigned to feast me, / sinful and unworthy servant, / with the precious body and blood of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, / not for any merit of mine, / but only because of your merciful goodness. / And I pray that this Holy Communion, / far from condemning me to punishment, / may bring about my pardon and salvation, / encompassing me with the armor of faith and the shield of a good will. / By it let my vices be done away, / all lustful desires extinguished. / May it advance me in charity, / patience, humility, obedience, and every other virtue. / Let it be strong defense against the wiles of all my enemies, visible and invisible, / allaying for me every disturbance of flesh and spirit, / binding me firmly to you, the one true God, / and bringing my last hour to a happy close. / I pray, too, that it may be your pleasure to call my sinful self one day / to that banquet, wonderful past all telling, / where you, with your Son and the Holy Spirit, / feast your saints with the vision of yourself, / who are true light, the fulfillment of all desires, / the joy that knows no ending, / gladness unalloyed, / and perfect bliss.

1. Have I raised my mind in humble trust to God and made, at least mentally, some pious invocation while I was carrying out my duties and enduring the hardships of life?
 2. Have I given compassionately of myself or of my goods to serve my brothers in need, led by the spirit of faith?
 3. Have I voluntarily abstained from something that is licit for and pleasing to me in a spirit of penance?
 4. Have I given explicit witness to my faith before others in the particular circumstances of my daily life?

Jesus, meek and humble of heart, ... / make our hearts like thine.

Let us pray ... Almighty and eternal God, / look upon the Heart of Thy most beloved Son / and upon the praises and satisfaction which He offers Thee in the name of sinners; / and to those who implore Thy mercy, / in Thy great goodness, grant forgiveness in the name of the same Jesus Christ, / Thy Son, who livest and reignest with Thee forever and ever.

MOST SWEET JESUS (IESU DULCISIME - REPARATIONIS ACTUS) (3)

Most sweet Jesus, / whose overflowing charity for men / is requited by so much forgetfulness, negligence and contempt, / behold us prostrate before you, / eager to repair by a special act of homage / the cruel indifference and injuries / to which your loving Heart is everywhere subject.

Mindful, alas! / that we ourselves have had a share in such great indignities, / which we now deplore from the depths of our hearts, / we humbly ask your pardon and declare our readiness to atone by voluntary expiation, / not only for our own personal offenses, / but also for the sins of those, who, / straying far from the path of salvation, / refuse in their obstinate infidelity to follow you, / their Shepherd and Leader, or, / renouncing the promises of their baptism, / have cast off the sweet yoke of your law.

We are now resolved to expiate / each and every deplorable outrage committed against you; / we are now determined to make amends / for the manifold offenses against Christian modesty / in unbecoming dress and behavior, / for all the foul seductions laid to ensnare the feet of the innocent, / for the frequent violations of Sundays and holy days, / and the shocking blasphemies uttered against you and your Saints. / We wish also to make amends for the insults / to which your Vicar on earth and your priests are subjected, / for the profanation, / by conscious neglect or terrible acts of sacrilege, / of the very Sacrament of your divine love, / and lastly for the public crimes of nations / who resist the rights and teaching authority of the Church / which you have founded.

Would that we were able to wash away such abominations with our blood. / We now offer, in reparation for these violations of your divine honor, / the satisfaction you once made to your Eternal Father on the cross / and which you continue to renew daily on our altars; / we offer it in union with the acts of atonement of your Virgin Mother / and all the Saints / and of the pious faithful on earth; / and we sincerely promise to make recompense, / as far as we can with the help of your grace, / for all neglect of your great love / and for the sins we and others have committed in the past. /

Henceforth, we will live a life of unswerving faith, / of purity of conduct, / of perfect observance of the precepts of the Gospel / and especially that of charity. / We promise to the best of our power / to prevent others from offending you / and to bring as many as possible to follow you.

O loving Jesus, / through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mother, / our model in reparation, / deign to receive the voluntary offering we make of this act of expiation; / and by the crowning gift of perseverance / keep us faithful unto death / in our duty and the allegiance we owe to you, / so that we may all one day come to that happy home, / where, with the Father and the Holy Spirit, / you live and reign, God, forever and ever.

PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN UNITY (OMNIPOTENS ET MISERICORS DEUS) (11.2)

Almighty and merciful God, / who wished to gather the scattered nations / into one people through Your Son, / grant that those who glory in the name of Christians / may put aside division / and become one in truth and charity, / and that all men may be illumined / by the true faith / and brought together into the fraternal communion of one Church.

Omnipotens et misericors Deus, / qui diversitatem gentium / in unum populum per Filium tuum adunare voluisti, / concede propitius ut qui christiano nomine gloriantur, / qualibet divisione reiecta, / unum sint in veritate et caritate, / et omnes homines, / verae fidei lumine illustrati, / in unam Ecclesiam fraterna communione conveniant.

Psalm 130 - De profundis

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord, / Lord, hear my voice! / O let your ears be attentive / to the voice of my pleading. / If you, O Lord, should mark our guilt, / Lord, who would survive? / But with you is found forgiveness: / for this we revere you. / My soul is waiting for the Lord. / I count on his word. / My soul is longing for the Lord / more than watchmen for daybreak. / (Let the watchman count on daybreak, / and Israel on the Lord.) / Because with the Lord there is mercy / and fullness of redemption, / Israel indeed he will redeem / from all its iniquity.

De profundis clamavi ad te, Domine; / Domine, exaudi vocem meam. / Fiant aures tuæ intendentes / in vocem deprecationis meæ. / Si iniquitates observaveris, Domine, / Domine, quis sustinebit? / Quia apud te propitiatio est; / et propter legem tuam sustinui te, Domine. / Sustinuit anima mea / in verbo ejus; / Speravit anima mea in Domino. / A custodia matutina usque ad noctem, / speret Israël in Domino. / Quia apud Dominum misericordia, / et copiosa apud eum redemptio. / Et ipse redimet Israel / ex omnibus iniquitatibus ejus.

HOLY GOD WE PRAISE THY NAME	TE DEUM (26.1.2, 26.2)
Holy God, we praise Thy Name; / Lord of all, we bow before Thee! / All on earth Thy scepter claim, / All in Heaven above adore Thee; / Infinite Thy vast domain, / Everlasting is Thy reign.	You are God: we praise you; / You are the Lord: we acclaim you; / You are the eternal Father: / All creation worships you.
Hark! the loud celestial hymn / Angel choirs above are raising, / Cherubim and Seraphim, / In unceasing chorus praising; / Fill the heavens with sweet accord: / Holy, holy, holy, Lord.	To you all angels, all the powers of heaven, / Cherubim and Seraphim, sing in endless praise: / Holy, holy, holy, Lord, God of / power and might, / heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Lo! the apostolic train / Join the sacred Name to hallow; / Prophets swell the loud refrain, / And the white-robed martyrs follow; / And from morn to set of sun, / Through the Church the song goes on.	The glorious company of apostles praise you. / The noble fellowship of prophets praise you. / The white-robed army of martyrs praise you. / Throughout the world the holy Church / acclaims you:
Holy Father, Holy Son, / Holy Spirit, Three we name Thee; / While in essence only One, / Undivided God we claim Thee; / And adoring bend the knee, / While we own the mystery.	Father, of majesty unbounded, / your true and only Son, worthy / of all worship, / and the Holy Spirit, advocate and guide.
Thou art King of glory, Christ: / Son of God, yet born of Mary; / For us sinners sacrificed, / And to death a tributary: / First to break the bars of death, / Thou hast opened Heaven to faith.	You, Christ, are the king of glory, / the eternal Son of the Father. / When you became man to set us free / you did not spurn the Virgin's womb. / You overcame the sting of death, / and opened the kingdom of heaven / to all believers.
From Thy high celestial home, / Judge of all, again returning, / We believe that Thou shalt come / In the dreaded doomsday morning; / When Thy voice shall shake the earth, / And the startled dead come forth.	You are seated at God's right hand in glory. / We believe that you will come, and / be our judge.
Therefore do we pray Thee, Lord: / Help Thy servants whom, redeeming / By Thy precious blood out-poured, / Thou hast saved from Satan's scheming. / Give to them eternal rest / In the glory of the blest.	Come then, Lord, / and help your people, / bought with the price of your own blood, / and bring us with your saints / to glory everlasting.
Spare Thy people, Lord, we pray, / By a thousand snares surrounded: / Keep us without sin today, / Never let us be confounded. / Lo, I put my trust in Thee; / Never, Lord, abandon me.	V./ Save your people, Lord, and bless your inheritance. R./ Govern and uphold them now and always. V./ Day by day we bless you. R./ We praise your name for ever. SCRIPTURAL STATIONS OF THE CROSS^x

OPENING PRAYER

God of power and mercy, / in love you sent your Son / that we might be cleansed of sin / and live with you forever. / Bless us as we gather to reflect / on his suffering and death / that we may learn from his example / the way we should go. / We ask this through that same Christ, our Lord ... / Amen.

FIRST STATION: JESUS IN THE GARDEN OF GETHSEMANE

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Then Jesus came with them to a place called Gethsemane, and he said to his disciples, "Sit here while I go over there and pray." He took along Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to feel sorrow and distress. Then he said to them, "My soul is sorrowful even to death. Remain here and keep watch with me." He advanced a little and fell prostrate in prayer, saying, "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me; yet, not as I will, but as you will." When he returned to his disciples he found them asleep. He said to Peter, "So you could not keep watch with me for one hour? Watch and pray that you may not undergo the test. The spirit is willing, but the flesh is weak." (Matthew 26:36-41)

Lord, grant us your strength and wisdom, that we may seek to follow your will in all things

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

SECOND STATION: JESUS, BETRAYED BY JUDAS, IS ARRESTED

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Then, while [Jesus] was still speaking, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, accompanied by a crowd with swords and clubs, who had come from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders. His betrayer had arranged a signal with them, saying, "The man I shall kiss is the one; arrest him and lead him away securely." He came and immediately went over to him and said, "Rabbi." And he kissed him. At this they laid hands on him and arrested him. (Mark 14:43-46)

Lord, grant us the courage of our convictions that our lives may faithfully reflect the good news you bring.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

THIRD STATION: JESUS IS CONDEMNED BY THE SANHEDRIN

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

When day came the council of elders of the people met, both chief priests and scribes, and they brought him before their Sanhedrin. They said, "If you are the Messiah, tell us," but he replied to them, "If I tell you, you will not believe, and if I question, you will not respond. But from this time on the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God." They all asked, "Are you then the Son of God?" He replied to them, "You say that I am." Then they said, "What further need have we for testimony? We have heard it from his own mouth." (Luke 22:66-71)

Lord, grant us your sense of righteousness that we may never cease to work to bring about the justice of the kingdom that you promised.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

FOURTH STATION: JESUS IS DENIED BY PETER

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Now Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard. One of the maids came over to him and said, "You too were with Jesus the Galilean." But he denied it in front of everyone, saying, "I do not know what you are talking about!" As he went out to the gate, another girl saw him and said to those who were there, "This man was with Jesus the Nazorean." Again, he denied it with an oath, "I do not know the man!" A little later the bystanders came over and said to Peter, "Surely you too are one of them; even your speech gives you away.” At that he began to curse and to swear, “I do not know the man.” And immediately a cock crowed. Then Peter remembered the word that Jesus had spoken: “Before the cock crows you will deny me three times.” He went out and began to weep bitterly. (Matthew 26:69–75)

Lord, grant us the gift of honesty that we may not fear to speak the truth even when difficult.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

FIFTH STATION: JESUS IS JUDGED BY PILATE

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

The chief priests with the elders and the scribes, that is, the whole Sanhedrin, held a council. They bound Jesus, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate. Pilate questioned him, “Are you the king of the Jews?” He said to him in reply, “You say so.” The chief priests accused him of many things. Again, Pilate questioned him, “Have you no answer? See how many things they accuse you of.” Jesus gave him no further answer, so that Pilate was amazed ... Pilate, wishing to satisfy the crowd, released Barrabas [and] handed [Jesus] over to be crucified. (Mark 15:1–5, 15)

Lord, grant us discernment that we may see as you see, not as the world sees.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

SIXTH STATION: JESUS IS SCOURGED AND CROWNED WITH THORNS

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him scourged. And the soldiers wove a crown out of thorns and placed it on his head, and clothed him in a purple cloak, and they came to him and said, “Hail, King of the Jews!” And they struck him repeatedly. (John 19:1–3)

Lord, grant us patience in times of suffering that we may offer our lives as a sacrifice of praise.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

SEVENTH STATION: JESUS BEARS THE CROSS

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

When the chief priests and the guards saw [Jesus] they cried out, “Crucify him, crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Take him yourselves and crucify him. I find no guilt in him.” ... They cried out, “Take him away, take him away! Crucify him!” Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your king?” The chief priests answered, “We have no king but Caesar.” Then he handed him over to them to be crucified. So, they took Jesus, and carrying the cross himself he went out to what is called the Place of the Skull, in Hebrew, Golgotha. (John 19:6, 15–17)

Lord, grant us strength of purpose that we may faithfully bear our crosses each day.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

EIGHTH STATION: JESUS IS HELPED BY SIMON THE CYRENIAN TO CARRY THE CROSS

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

They pressed into service a passer-by, Simon, a Cyrenian, who was coming in from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to carry his cross. (Mark 15:21)

Lord, grant us willing spirits that we may be your instruments on earth.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

NINTH STATION: JESUS MEETS THE WOMEN OF JERUSALEM

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

A large crowd of people followed Jesus, including many women who mourned and lamented him. Jesus turned to them and said, “Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me; weep instead for yourselves and for your children, for indeed, the days are coming when people will say, 'Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore and the breasts that never nursed.' At that time, people will say to the mountains, 'Fall upon us!' and to the hills, 'Cover us!' for if these things are done when the wood is green what will happen when it is dry?" (Luke 23:27-31)

Lord, grant us gentle spirits that we may comfort those who mourn.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

TENTH STATION: JESUS IS CRUCIFIED

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

When they came to the place called the Skull, they crucified him and the criminals there, one on his right, the other on his left. [Then Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, they know not what they do."] (Luke 23:33-34)

Lord, grant us merciful hearts that we may bring your reconciliation and forgiveness to all.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

ELEVENTH STATION: JESUS PROMISES HIS KINGDOM TO THE GOOD THIEF

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." (Luke 23:39-43)

Lord, grant us perseverance that we may never stop seeking you.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

TWELFTH STATION: JESUS SPEAKS TO HIS MOTHER AND THE DISCIPLE

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

Standing by the cross of Jesus were his mother and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary of Magdala. When Jesus saw his mother and the disciple there whom he loved, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold, your son." Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that hour the disciple took her into his home. (John 19:25-27)

Lord, grant us constancy that we may be willing to stand by those in need.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

THIRTEENTH STATION: JESUS DIES ON THE CROSS

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you ... / Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

It was now about noon and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon because of an eclipse of the sun. Then the veil of the temple was torn down the middle. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit"; and when he had said this, he breathed his last. (Luke 23:44-46)

Lord, grant us trust in you, that, when our time on earth in ended, our spirits may come to you without delay.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

FOURTEENTH STATION: JESUS IS PLACED IN THE TOMB

We adore you, O Christ, and we bless you... /
Because by your holy cross you have redeemed the world.

When it was evening, there came a rich man from Arimathea named Joseph, who was himself a disciple of Jesus. He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus; then Pilate ordered it to be handed over. Taking the body, Joseph wrapped it [in] clean linen and laid it in his new tomb that he had hewn in the rock. Then he rolled a huge stone across the entrance to the tomb and departed. (Matthew 27:57-60)

Lord, grant us your compassion that we may always provide for those in need.

Lord Jesus, ... / help us walk in your steps.

CLOSING PRAYER

Lord Jesus Christ, / your passion and death is the sacrifice that unites earth and heaven / and reconciles all people to you. / May we who have faithfully reflected on these mysteries / follow in your steps and so come to share your glory in heaven / where you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit / one God, for ever and ever ... / Amen.

Merear, Domine, portare manipulum fletus et doloris; / ut cum exultatione recipiam mercedem laboris.

STOLE

Lord, restore the stole of immortality, / which I lost through the collusion of our first parents, / and, unworthy as I am to approach Thy sacred mysteries, / may I yet gain eternal joy.

Redde mihi, Domine, stolam immortalitatis, / quam perdidit in praevaricatione primi parentis: / et, quamvis indignus accedo ad tuum sacrum mysterium, / merear tamen gaudium sempiternum.

CHASUBLE

O Lord, who has said, / "My yoke is sweet and My burden light," / grant that I may so carry it / as to merit Thy grace.

Domine, qui dixisti: / iugum meam suave est et onus meum leve: / fac, ut istud portare sic valeam, / quod consequar tuam gratiam.

NOVENA TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY (22.1)

In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

SUB tuum praesidium confugimus, sancta Dei Genetrix; nostras deprecationes ne despicias in necessitatibus, sed a periculis cunctis libera nos semper, Virgo gloriosa et benedicta.

*Ave Maria, gratia plena, Dominus tecum.
Genuisti qui te fecit, et in aeternum permanes virgo.*

Memorare, o piissima Virgo Maria, non esse auditum a saeculo, quemquam ad tua currentem praesidia, tua implorantem auxilia, tua petentem suffragia esse derelictum. Nos tali animati confidentia ad te, Virgo Virginum, Mater, currimus; ad te venimus; coram te gementes peccatores assistimus. Noli, Mater Verbi, verba nostra despiciere, sed audi propitia et exaudi. R.

*Benedicta tu in mulieribus.
Et benedictus fructus ventris tui.*

O pura et immaculata, eadem benedicta Virgo, magni Filii tui universorum Domini Mater inculcata, integra et sacrosantissima, desperantium atque reorum spes, te collaudamus. Tibi ut gratia plenissimae benedicimus, quae Christum genuisti Deum et Hominem: omnes coram te prosternimur: omnes te invocamus et auxilium tuum imploramus.

hic morare ad Beatam Mariam Virginem petendam

*O Maria, sine labe concepta,
Ora pro nobis qui ad te confugimus.*

Oremus ... Sancta Maria, succurre miseris; iuva pusillanimes; refove flebiles; ora pro populo; interveni pro clero; intercede pro devoto femineo sexu: sentiant omnes tuum iuvamen, quicumque celebrant tuam sanctam commemorationem. Assiste parata votis poscentium et reporta nobis optatum effectum. Sint tibi studia assidua orare pro populo Dei, quae meruisti, benedicta, Redemptorem ferre mundi, qui vivit et regnat in saecula saeculorum.

IN the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

WE fly to thy patronage, O holy Mother of God; despise not our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from all dangers, O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee. Thou hast brought forth Him who made thee, and ever remain a virgin.

Remember, O most gracious Virgin Mary, that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, we fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins and Mother; to thee do we come; before thee we stand, sinful and sorrowful; O Mother of the Word Incarnate, despise not our petitions, but in thy mercy hear and answer us. Amen.

Blessed art thou among women.
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb.

O pure and immaculate and likewise blessed Virgin, who art the sinless mother of thy Son, the mighty Lord of the universe, thou who art inviolate and altogether holy, the hope of the hopeless and sinful, we sing thy praises. We bless thee as full of every grace, thou who borest the God-Man: we all bow low before thee; we invoke thee and implore thy aid. Amen.

Pause to make petitions to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

O Mary, conceived without sin,
Pray for us who have recourse to thee.

Let us pray ... Holy Mary, succor the miserable, help the faint-hearted, comfort the sorrowful, pray for the people, plead for the clergy, intercede for all women consecrated to God; may all who keep thy holy commemoration feel now thy help and protection. Be ever ready to assist us when we pray, and bring back to us the answers to our prayers. Make it thy continual care to pray for the people of God, thou who, blessed by God, merited to bear the Redeemer of the world, who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.

NOVENA TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS (22.1)

In nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti.

Domine Iesu, qui ineffabiles Cordis tui dulcedines ac divitias Ecclesiae Sponsae tuae singulari dilectione aperire dignatus es: concede nobis famulis tuis, ut gratiis caelestibus, ex hoc dulcissimo fonte manantibus, ditare et recreari mereamur.

Cor Iesu, flagrans amore nostri, Inflamma cor nostrum amore tui.

Domine Iesu Christe, qui dixisti: Petite et accipietis; quaerite et invenietis; pulsate et aperietur vobis; quaesumus, da nobis petentibus divinissimi tui amoris affectum, ut te toto corde, ore et opere diligamus et a tua numquam laude cessemus.

hic morare ad Sacrum Cor petendum

O Sacrum Cor Iesu, Patris voluntati obsequentissimum.

Inclina ad te corda nostra, ut quae placita sunt ei faciamus semper.

O divinum Cor Iesu, praesta, quaesumus, animabus purgantibus requiem aeternam, morituris gratiam finalem, peccatoribus veram paenitentiam, paganis fidei lucem, nobis nostrisque omnibus tuam benedictionem. Tibi ergo, Cor Iesu piissimum, omnes has animas commendamus et pro ipsis tibi offerimus omnia merita sacri Cordis tui.

O sacrum Cor Iesu, salutis nostrae sitientissimum,

Revoca nos praevaricatores ad Cor, ut non moriamur in peccatis nostris.

Oremus ... Deus, qui nobis, in Corde Filii tui, nostris vulnerato peccatis, infinitos dilectionis thesauros misericorditer largiri dignaris; concede, quaesumus, ut illi devotum pietatis nostrae praestantes obsequium, dignae quoque satisfactionis exhibeamus officium. Per eundem Christum Dominum nostrum.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Lord Jesus, Who hast deigned to open by Thy special love the unutterable goodness and riches of Thy Heart to Thy Bride, the Church: grant to us, Thy servants, that we may merit to be enriched and refreshed by Thy heavenly graces, flowing from this sweetest of fountains. Amen.

Heart of Jesus, burning with love for us,
Set our hearts on fire with love of Thee.

O Lord Jesus Christ, who hast said: Ask and ye shall receive, seek and ye shall find, knock and it shall be opened unto you; we beseech Thee, grant us the gift of Thy divine love, that with all our heart, our words and deeds we may ever love Thee and never cease praising Thee. Amen.

Pause to make petitions to the Sacred Heart.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, most obedient to the will of the Father.

Incline our hearts to Thee, that we may do always what is pleasing to Thee.

O divine Heart of Jesus, grant, we pray Thee, eternal rest to the souls in Purgatory, final grace to those who are about to die, true repentance to sinners, the light of faith to non-Christians, and Thy blessing to us and all who are dear to us. To Thee, therefore, we commend all these souls, and on their behalf we offer unto Thee all the merits of Thy Sacred Heart.

O Sacred Heart of Jesus, thirsting for our salvation,

Recall us sinners to Thy Heart, that we may not die in our sins.

Let us pray ... O God, Who mercifully deigns to bestow upon us in the Heart of Thy Son, which was wounded for our sins, the infinite treasures of love; grant, we beseech Thee, that we who pay Him the devout homage of our affection may likewise exhibit a worthy reparation for our sins. Through the same Christ our Lord. Amen.

NOVENA TO THE HOLY SPIRIT (22.1)

O Holy Spirit, Divine Consoler! I adore you as my True God. I bless You by uniting myself to the praises You receive from the angel and saints. I offer You my whole heart, and I render You heartfelt thanks for all the benefits You have bestowed and do unceasingly bestow upon the world. You are the author of all supernatural gifts and who did enrich with immense favors the soul of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Mother of God, I beseech you to visit me by Your grace and Your love, and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

O Holy Spirit, spirit of truth, come into our hearts: shed the brightness of your light on all nations, that they may be of one faith and pleasing to You.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

Recite the prayer of the appropriate day ...

DAY ONE

O Holy Spirit, bestow upon us Your seven holy gifts. Enlighten our understanding that we may know You. Give us wisdom that Your will may be clear to us and that we may accept it. Grant us the gift of counsel that we may always perceive what is right. Fortify us that we may always be capable of fulfilling Your Divine Will. Inspire us with the spirit of learning that we may be able to penetrate more deeply into the truths that You have revealed. Let our hearts be steeped in the spirit of childlikeness that we may bring You joy. Let us have proper fear of God that we may never grieve You or wander from the path of goodness. Give us the fullness of Your gifts that we may glorify You.

Look with compassion upon us, O Holy Spirit, and grant us the favor we seek in this novena.

State your request ... if it be in accordance with Your Holy Will.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY TWO

O Holy Spirit, make me faithful in every thought, and grant that I may always listen to your voice, and watch for Your light, and follow Your gracious inspirations. I cling to You, and give myself to You, and ask You by Your compassion to watch over me in my weakness. Holding the pierced feet of Jesus, looking at His Five Wounds, trusting in His Precious Blood, adoring His opened side and stricken heart, I implore You adorable Spirit, helper of my infirmity, to keep me in Your grace, now and always, and grant us the favor we ask in this novena. State your request ...

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY THREE

Heavenly Father, You have called me to be a member of the mystical body of Your Son, Jesus Christ, and to be a temple of the Holy Spirit. I ask You to give me these gifts of the Holy Spirit: wisdom, that I may understand the follies of this world; understanding, that I may grasp more fully the meaning of my existence and the purpose of all things in the world; counsel, that I may always choose the proper way; fortitude, that I may remain faithful to You under the pressure of temptation; piety, that I may revere You in all I do, think or say; fear of the Lord, that should the motive of love fail me, I may quickly be awakened to the eternal consequences of my deeds. Visit me by Your grace and Your love and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY FOUR

O God, Who today by the light of the Holy Spirit did instruct the hearts of the faithful, give us, by the light of the same Holy Spirit, a love for what is right and just and a constant enjoyment of His comforts. Pray, Holy Spirit, that I may strive to learn more of my faith; that I may ever be conscious that reason in all its human magnificence is capable of grasping but a glimpse of the reality that is God. Pray that I may accept as the motto of my life: "All for the greater glory of God" and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY FIVE

Come, O Spirit of sanctity, from the glory of heaven and send forth the radiance of Your light. Father of all the poor, light and peace of all hearts, come with Your countless gifts. Consoler in desolation; refreshment full of loveliness; come, dear friend of my soul. In weariness send repose; breathe gently cool refreshing breeze; console the desolate who weep alone. Light of Beatitude, make our hearts ready; come enter our souls. Without Your grace, man stands alone; he cannot be good or sure. Cleanse what is soiled; heal what is wounded; moisten what is arid. Bend the stubborn will; warm the cold heart; guide the wandering footstep. O

Holy Spirit, we beg You to give us grace through Your sevenfold power and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

Give us merit for the present, and one day beatitude when we have finished our earthly journey.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY SIX

O Father in Heaven, I beg You to send the Holy Spirit. May Your Holy Spirit remind me when I am apt to forget Your law, Your love, Your promises. May Your Holy Spirit strengthen my memory to recall frequently Your sanctity, omniscience, wisdom, goodness, faithfulness, and love. May Your Holy Spirit encourage me when I am slothful; strengthen me when I am weak; enlighten me when I no longer can help myself. Breathe into me, O Holy Spirit, that I may do what is holy. Stir me, that I may love what is holy. Strengthen me, that I may preserve what is holy. Protect me, Holy Spirit, that I may never lose what is holy and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY SEVEN

Come, Holy Spirit, creator of all things: come visit our hearts with Your power. Fill with grace, friendly guest, the hearts which You have created. You are called the Consoler, gift from the hand of God, source of life, light, love, and flame, highest good. You are the pledge of sevenfold grace, finger of the Father's hand, promised us by Him, and You make our tongues speak the truth. Cast light on our senses, pour love into our hearts. Grant our weak bodies strength that they may never grow weary of doing good and grant me the favor I so earnestly seek in this novena. State your request ...

Keep the enemy far from us; give us peace always; let us willingly follow in Your footsteps, that we may be far removed from sin. Grant that through You we may grow in knowledge of the Father and of the Son, and that we may ever strongly believe in You, the Spirit of both.

Praise and honor be forever to the Father on the highest throne, in the risen Son of God, in the Consoler.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY EIGHT

O Holy Spirit, life and light of the Church, give us thoughts higher than our own thoughts, and prayers better than our own prayers, and powers beyond our own powers, that we may love and live, imitating Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Come to us, Holy Spirit, come with the Father and the Son and grant me the favor I so earnestly request in this novena. State your request ...

Vouchsafe to dwell within our souls and quickly make our hearts Your own. Quench in us the fires of hate and strife, the wasting fever of the heart. From perils guard our feeble life and to our souls Your peace impart. Let voice and mind and heart and strength confess and glorify Your name, and let the fire of charity burn bright and other hearts inflame.

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

DAY NINE

O Lord, Holy Spirit, grant me sight to see the wondrous promise of divine love; insight to see my own weakness; delight in Your divine presence in my soul which You have made Your temple through sanctifying grace. I pray, O Holy Spirit, that I may be not doubting; that I be spared the pain of being alone without trust or hope in Christ; that my prayer may always be "My Lord and my God!" I pray that I may acquire a sense of retreat to prayer and recollection at various times in my daily life; for prayer is the bond that joins us to Christ. I pray that I may be aware of the physical needs of the poor and that I may share what I can with them in the charitable works of the Church. I pray, O Holy Spirit, that You will in Your mercy grant me the favor I have sought in this novena. State your request ...

Come, O Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Your faithful, and kindle in them the fire of Your love.

BLESSING AND EXORCISM OF THE MEDAL OF ST. BENEDICT

Priest: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

Priest: In the name of God the Father + Almighty, Who made heaven and earth, the sea and all that is in them, I exorcise these medals against the power and attacks of the evil one. May all who use these medals devoutly be blessed with health of soul and body. In the name of the Father + Almighty, of His Son + Jesus Christ our Lord, and of the Holy + Spirit the Paraclete, and in the love of the same Lord Jesus Christ who will come on the last day to judge the living and the dead. All: Amen.

Priest: Let us pray. Almighty God, the boundless Source of all good things, we humbly ask that, through the intercession of St. Benedict, Thou pourest out Thy blessings + upon these medals. May those who use them devoutly and earnestly strive to perform goods works be blessed by Thee with health of soul and body, the grace of a holy death, and remission of temporal punishment due to sin. May they also, with the help of Thy merciful love, resist the temptations of the evil one and strive to exercise true charity and justice toward all, so that one day they may appear sinless and holy in Thy sight. This we ask through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

The medals are then sprinkled with holy water.

HOUSE BLESSING FOR ST. FRANCIS PARISHIONERS

This blessing is provided to the parishioners of St. Francis to be used in their homes. The leader is either a priest or the head of the household. Other members of the house may serve as the reader. If a priest is present, the Blessing of Salt, Water and Incense is added before the Gospel. If a priest is unable to be at the blessing, parishioners can obtain salt, water and incense, blessed in the words found below, from the parish office. The head of the house should light a coal at the beginning of the prayer service.

INTRODUCTION

Leader: In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. All: Amen.

Leader: When Christ took flesh through the Blessed Virgin Mary, he made his home with us. Let us now pray that he will enter this home and bless it with his presence. May he always be here with you, share in your joys, and comfort you in your sorrows. Inspired by his teachings and example, seek to make your new home before all else a dwelling place of love, diffusing far and wide the goodness of Christ.

BLESSING OF SALT

If a priest is present, the salt, water and incense are blessed at this time. The blessing of holy objects itself can only be performed by the priest. However, a lay leader may choose to read out loud the blessings of salt, water and incense for the edification and education of all present at the ceremony. In this case, blessed salt, water and incense can be obtained from the parish office.

Priest: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

All: Who made heaven and earth.

Priest: God's creature, salt, I cast out the demon from you by the living + God, by the true + God, by the holy + God, by God who ordered you to be thrown into the water-spring by Eliseus to heal it of its barrenness. May you be a purified salt, a means of health for those who believe, a medicine for body and soul for all who make use of you. May all evil fancies of the foul fiend, his malice and cunning, be driven afar from the place where you are sprinkled. And let every unclean spirit be repulsed by Him who is coming to judge both the living and the dead and the world by fire. All: Amen.

Priest: Let us pray, Almighty everlasting God, we humbly appeal to your mercy and goodness to graciously bless + this creature, salt, which you have given for mankind's use. May all who use it find in it a remedy for body and mind. And may everything that it touches or sprinkles be freed from uncleanness and any influence of the evil spirit; through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

BLESSING OF WATER

Priest: God's creature, water, I cast out the demon from you in the name of God + the Father almighty, in the name of Jesus + Christ, His Son, our Lord, and in the power of the Holy + Spirit. May you be a purified water, empowered to drive afar all power of the enemy, in fact, to root out and banish the enemy himself, along with his fallen angels. We ask this through the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is coming to judge both the living and the dead and the world by fire. All: Amen.

Priest: Let us pray. O God, who for man's welfare established the most wonderful mysteries in the substance of water, hearken to our prayer, and pour forth your blessing + on this element now being prepared with various purifying rites. May this creature of yours, when used in your mysteries and endowed with your grace, serve to cast out demons and to banish disease. May everything that this water sprinkles in the homes and gatherings of the faithful be delivered from all that is unclean and hurtful; let no breath of contagion hover there, no taint of corruption; let all the wiles of the lurking enemy come to nothing. By the sprinkling of this water may everything opposed to the safety and peace of the occupants of these homes be banished, so that in calling on your holy name they may know the well-being they desire, and be protected from every peril; through Christ our Lord.

Now the priest pours the salt into the water in the form of a cross, saying:

May this salt and water be mixed together; in the name of the Father, and of the Son, + and of the Holy Spirit. All: Amen.

Priest: Let us pray. God, source of irresistible might and king of an invincible realm, the ever-glorious conqueror; who restrain the force of the adversary, silencing the uproar of his rage, and valiantly subduing his wickedness; in awe and humility we beg you, Lord, to regard with favor this creature thing of salt and water, to let the light of your kindness shine upon it, and to hallow it with the dew of your mercy; so that wherever it is sprinkled and your holy name is invoked, every assault of the unclean spirit may be baffled, and all dread of the serpent's venom be cast out. To us who entreat your mercy grant that the Holy Spirit may be with us wherever we may be; through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

BLESSING OF INCENSE

Priest: Let us pray. Accept, holy Father, from me, your unworthy servant, these gifts which I humbly offer to the honor of your holy name and in recognition of your peerless majesty, as you once accepted the sacrifice of the just Abel and the same kind of gifts from the three Magi.

God's creature incense I cast out the demon from you by the Father + almighty, by Jesus + Christ, His only-begotten Son, and by the Holy + Spirit, the Advocate, so that you may be freed from all deceit, evil, and cunning of the devil, and become a saving remedy to mankind against the snares of the enemy. May those who use you, with confidence in the divine power, in their lodgings, homes, or on their persons, be delivered from all perils to body and soul, and enjoy all good things. We ask this through the power and merits of our Lord and Savior, the intercession of the blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of God, and of all the saints.

All: Amen.

Priest: God, the invisible and endless One, in the holy and awesome name of your Son, be pleased to endow with your blessing + and power this creature of incense. Protect those who will have it in their possession from every kind of illness, injury, and danger, anything that would interfere with the well-being of body and soul, and so be enabled to serve you joyously and confidently in your Church; you who live and reign in perfect Trinity, God, forever and ever.

And may the blessing of almighty God, Father, + Son, and Holy + Spirit, come upon this creature of incense, and remain always.

GOSPEL

Incense is placed on the lit coal for the remainder of the ceremony.

Leader: Listen to the words of the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Reader: The Lord said to the seventy-two: "Into whatever house you enter, first say, 'Peace to this household.' If a peaceful person lives there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you. Stay in the same house and eat and drink what is offered to you, for the laborer deserves his payment. Do not move about from one house to another. Whatever town you enter and they welcome you, eat what is set before you, cure the sick in it, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God is at hand for you.'" (Luke 10:5-9)

PSALM 112

Reader: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reader: Happy the man who fears the Lord, / who greatly delights in his commands. / His posterity shall be mighty upon the earth; / the upright generation shall be blessed.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reader: Wealth and riches shall be in his house; / his generosity shall endure for ever. / He dawns through the darkness, / a light for the upright; / he is gracious and merciful and just.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reader: Well for the man who is gracious and lends, / who conducts his affairs with justice; / He shall never be moved; / the just man shall be in everlasting remembrance.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reader: An evil report he shall not fear; / his heart is firm, trusting in the Lord. / His heart is steadfast; he shall not fear / till he looks down upon his foes.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

Reader: Lavishly he gives to the poor; / his generosity shall endure for ever; / his horn shall be exalted in glory.

All: Happy are those who fear the Lord.

INTERCESSIONS

Leader: The Son of God, Lord of heaven and earth, made his home among us. With thankfulness and gladness let us call upon him, saying: Stay with us, Lord.

All: Stay with us, Lord.

Reader: Lord Jesus Christ, by your life with Mary and Joseph you sanctified the life of the home; dwell with us in our home, so that we may have you as our guest and honor you as our Head. For this we pray:

All: Stay with us, Lord.

Reader: In you every dwelling grows into a holy temple; grant that those who live in this house may be built up together into the dwelling place of God in the Holy Spirit. For this we pray:

All: Stay with us, Lord.

Reader: You taught your followers to build their houses upon solid rock; grant that the members of this family may hold fast to your teachings and, free of all discord, serve you with their whole heart. For this we pray:

All: Stay with us, Lord.

Reader: You had no place to lay your head, but in uncomplaining poverty you accepted the hospitality of your friends; grant that through our help people who are homeless may obtain decent housing. For this we pray:

All: Stay with us, Lord.

A CHILD'S PRAYER TO MARY

Leader: Let us now ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to bless and protect our home:

All: Mary, Mother whom we bless, full of grace and tenderness, protect us (me) from the devil's power, and assist us (me) in our (my) dying hour.

PRAYER FOR ANGELIC PROTECTION

Leader: Let us also ask the Lord to protect our house from all evil through the help of our guardian angels:

All: Visit, we beg you, O Lord, this dwelling, / and drive from it all snares of the enemy: / let your holy Angels dwell herein, to keep us in peace; / and let your blessing be always upon us. / Through Christ our Lord.

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

Leader: Let us also ask St. Francis, our patron, to make our home a true place of peace and harmony:

All: Lord, make me an instrument of your peace. / Where there is hatred, let me sow love. / Where there is injury, pardon. / Where there is doubt, faith. / Where there I despair, hope. / Where there is darkness, light. / Where there is sadness, joy. / O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek / to be consoled as to console, / to be understood as to understand, / to be loved as to love, / for it is in giving that we receive, / it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, / and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

PRAYER OF BLESSING

Leader: Finally, let us ask God for his divine blessing upon our house and all who live here:

Lord, be close to your servants / who move into this home (today) / and ask for your blessing. / Be their shelter when they are at home, / their companion when they are away, / and their welcome guest when they return. / And at last receive them / into the dwelling place you have prepared for them / in your Father's house, / where you live for ever and ever. All: Amen.

BLESSING OF THE HOUSE

All rooms of the home are sprinkled with the holy water mixed with salt. Incense is also carried from room to room.

PRAYER OF EXORCISM AND ANOINTING BEFORE BAPTISM

Almighty ever-living God, who sent your Son into the world to drive out from us the power of Satan, the spirit of evil, and to bring the human race, rescued from darkness, into the marvelous kingdom of your light: We humbly beseech you, free this child (these children) from Original Sin, to make him (her, them) the temple (temples) of your glory, and to grant that your Holy Spirit may dwell in him (her, them).

Through Christ our Lord. All: Amen.

Celebrant: May the strength of Christ the Savior protect you. As a sign of this we anoint you with the oil of salvation in the name of Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns forever and ever. All: Amen.

CELEBRATION OF BAPTISM

Celebrant: Let us pray, dear brothers and sisters, that the Lord God Almighty may bestow new life on this child (these children) by water and the Holy Spirit.

BLESSING OF WATER AND INVOCATION OF GOD OVER THE WATER

O God, who by invisible power accomplish a wondrous effect through sacramental signs, and who in many ways have prepared water, your creation, to show forth the grace of Baptism;

O God, whose Spirit, in the first moments of the world's creation, hovered over the waters, so that the very substance of water would even then take to itself the power to sanctify;

O God, who by the outpouring of the flood foreshadowed regeneration, so that from the mystery of one and the same element of water would come an end to vice and a beginning of virtue;

O God, who caused the children of Abraham to pass dry-shod through the Red Sea, so that the chosen people, set free from slavery to Pharaoh, would prefigure the people of the baptized;

O God, whose Son, baptized by John in the waters of the Jordan, was anointed with the Holy Spirit, and as he hung upon the Cross, gave forth water from his side along with blood, and after the Resurrection, commanded his disciples: "Go forth, teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit," look now, we pray, upon the face of your Church and graciously unseal for her the fountain of Baptism.

May this water receive by the Holy Spirit the grace of your Only Begotten Son, so that human nature, created in your image and washed clean through the Sacrament of Baptism from all the squalor of old, may be found worthy to rise to the life of newborn children through water and the Holy Spirit.

The celebrant touches the water with his right hand and continues:

May the power of the Holy Spirit, O Lord, we pray, come down through your Son into the fullness of this font, so that all who have been buried with Christ by Baptism into death may rise again to life with him. Who lives and reigns forever and ever. All: Amen.

RENUNCIATION OF SIN AND PROFESSION OF FAITH

Dear parents and godparents: Through this Sacrament of Baptism, the child(ren) you have presented is (are) about to receive from the love of God new life by water and the Holy Spirit.

For your part, you must strive to bring him (her, them) up in the faith, so that this divine life may be preserved from the contagion of sin, and may grow in him (her, them) day by day.

If your faith makes you ready to accept this responsibility, then, mindful of your own Baptism, renounce sin and profess faith in Christ Jesus, the faith of the Church, in which children are baptized.

Do you renounce sin, so as to live in the freedom of the children of God? All: I do.

Do you renounce the lure of evil, so that sin may have no mastery over you? All: I do.

Do you renounce Satan, the author and prince of sin? All: I do.

Do you believe in God, the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth? All: I do.

Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary, suffered death and was buried, rose again from the dead, and is seated at the right hand of the Father? All: I do.

Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? All: I do.

This is our faith. This is the faith of the Church. We are proud to profess it in Christ Jesus our Lord. All: Amen.

BAPTISM

Is it your will, therefore, that N. should receive Baptism in the faith of the Church, which we have all professed with you?

Parents and godparents: It is.

N., I baptize you in the name of the Father, / and of the Son, / and of the Holy Spirit. (Repeat for each child.)

All: Blessed be God, who chose you in Christ.

EXPLANATORY RITES

ANOINTING AFTER BAPTISM

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, has freed you from sin, given you new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and joined you to his people. He now anoints you with the Chrism of salvation, so that you may remain members of Christ, Priest, Prophet, and King, unto eternal life. All: Amen.

Then the celebrant anoints the child on the crown of the head with the sacred chrism, in silence.

CLOTHING WITH THE WHITE GARMENT

N. (Dear children), you have become a new creation and have clothed yourself (yourselves) in Christ. May this white garment be a sign to you of your Christian dignity. With your family and friends to help you by word and example, bring it unstained into eternal life. All: Amen.

HANDING ON OF A LIGHTED CANDLE

The celebrant then takes the paschal candle and says:

Receive the light of Christ.

One member from the family lights a candle for the child from the paschal candle.

Parents and godparents, this light is entrusted to you to be kept burning brightly, so that your child(ren), enlightened by Christ, may walk always as a child (as children) of the light and, persevering in the faith, may run to meet the Lord when he comes with all the Saints in the heavenly court.

All: Baptized in Christ, you are clothed with Christ, alleluia, alleluia.

EPHPHETHA

The celebrant touches the ears and mouth of each child with his thumb, saying:

May the Lord Jesus, who made the deaf to hear and the mute to speak, grant that you may soon receive his word with your ears and profess the faith with your lips, to the glory and praise of God the Father. All: Amen. (Repeat for each child.)

LORD'S PRAYER

The celebrant, standing before the altar, addresses the parents and godparents and all present in these or similar words:

Dear brothers and sisters, this child (these children) reborn through baptism are now called a child (children) of God, for so indeed he (she) is (they are).

Through Confirmation he (she, they) will receive the fullness of the Holy Spirit and, approaching the altar of the Lord, he (she, they) will share at the table of his sacrifice, and will call upon God as Father in the midst of the Church. Now in his (her, their) name(s), and in a spirit of adoption as sons and daughters, which we have all received, let us pray together as the Lord taught us.

All: Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.

BLESSING AND DISMISSAL

Then the celebrant blesses the mother, holding her child in her arms, the father, and all those present, saying:

The Lord God Almighty, through his Son, born of the Virgin Mary, brings joy to all Christian mothers as the hope of eternal life shines forth upon their children. May he graciously bless the mother(s) of this child (these children), so that, as she now gives (they now give) thanks for the gift of her child (their children), she (they) may always remain united with him (her, them) in thanksgiving, in Christ Jesus our Lord. All: Amen.

May the Lord God Almighty, the giver of life both in heaven and on earth, bless the father(s) of this child (these children) so that, together with his wife (their wives), they may, by word and example, prove to be the first witness of the faith to their child(ren), in Christ Jesus our Lord. All: Amen.

May the Lord God Almighty, who by water and the Holy Spirit has given new birth into eternal life, abundantly bless the faithful here present, that always and everywhere they may be active members of his people; and may he bestow his peace on all who are here, in Christ Jesus our Lord. All: Amen.

May almighty God bless you, the Father, the Son, + and the Holy Spirit. All: Amen.

Go in peace.

All: Thanks be to God.

After the blessing, if circumstances suggest, a suitable canticle that expresses paschal joy and thanksgiving or the Cantic of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Magnificat, may be sung by all.

Where it is the custom to bring the baptized infant to the altar of the Blessed Virgin Mary, this custom should be appropriately retained.

RITE OF MATRIMONY^{xii}EXHORTATION BEFORE MARRIAGE

From the 1962 Roman Ritual

My dear friends: You are about to enter upon a union which is most sacred and most serious. It is most sacred, because established by God himself. By it, he gave to man a share in the greatest work of creation, the work of the continuation of the human race. And in this way he sanctified human love and enabled man and woman to help each other live as children of God, by sharing a common life under his fatherly care.

Because God himself is thus its author, marriage is of its very nature a holy institution, requiring of those who enter into it a complete and unreserved giving of self. But Christ our Lord added to the holiness of marriage an even deeper meaning and a higher beauty. He referred to the love of marriage to describe his own love for his Church, that is, for the people of God whom he redeemed by his own blood. And so he gave to Christians a new vision of what married life ought to be, a life of self-sacrificing love like his own. It is for this reason that his apostle, St. Paul, clearly states that marriage is now and for all time to be considered a great mystery, intimately bound up with the supernatural union of Christ and the Church, which union is also to be its pattern.

This union, then, is most serious, because it will bind you together for life in a relationship so close and so intimate, that it will profoundly influence your whole future. That future, with its hopes and disappointments, its successes and its failures, its pleasures and its pains, its joys and its sorrows, is hidden from your eyes. You know that these elements are mingled in every life, and are to be expected in your own. And so not knowing what is before you, you take each other for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, until death.

Truly, then, these words are most serious. It is a beautiful tribute to your undoubted faith in each other, that recognizing their full import, you are, nevertheless, so willing and ready to pronounce them. And because these words involve such solemn obligations, it is most fitting that you rest the security of your wedded life upon the great principle of self-sacrifice. And so you begin your married life by the voluntary and complete surrender of your individual lives in the interest of that deeper and wider life which you are to have in common. Henceforth you will belong entirely to each other; you will be one in mind, one in heart, and one in affections. And whatever sacrifices you may hereafter be required to make to preserve this mutual life, always make them generously. Sacrifice is usually difficult and irksome. Only love can make it easy, and perfect love can make it a joy. We are willing to give in proportion as we love. And when love is perfect, the sacrifice is complete. God so loved the world that he gave, his only-begotten Son, and the Son so loved us that he gave himself for our salvation. "Greater love than this no man hath, that a man lay down his life for his friends."

No greater blessing can come to your married life than pure conjugal love, loyal and true to the end. May, then, this love with which you join your hands and hearts today never fail, but grow deeper and stronger as the years go on. And if true love and the unselfish spirit of perfect sacrifice guide your every action, you can expect the greatest measure of earthly happiness that may be allotted to man in this vale of tears. The rest is in the hands of God.

THE LITURGY OF THE EUCHARIST

The Liturgy of the Eucharist will proceed as normal.

THE NUPTIAL BLESSING

After the "Our Father," the prayer "Deliver us" is omitted. The priest, standing and facing the bride and bridegroom, invokes upon them God's blessing, which is never omitted.

The priest, with hands joined, calls upon those present to pray:

Dear brothers and sisters, / let us humbly pray to the Lord / that on these his servants, now married in Christ, / he may mercifully pour out / the blessing of his grace / and make of one heart in love / (by the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood) / those he has joined by a holy covenant.

Then the priest, with hands extended over the bride and bridegroom, continues:

O God, who by your mighty power / created all things out of nothing, / and, when you had set in place / the beginnings of the universe, / formed man and woman in your own image, / making the woman an inseparable helpmate to the man, / that they might no longer be two, but one flesh, / and taught that what you were pleased to make one / must never be divided;

O God, who consecrated the bond of marriage / by so great a mystery / that in the wedding covenant you foreshadowed / the Sacrament of Christ and his Church;

O God, by whom woman is joined to man / and the companionship they had in the beginning / is endowed with the one blessing / not forfeited by original sin / nor washed away by the flood. / Look now with favor on these your servants, / joined together in marriage, / who ask to be strengthened by your blessing.

Send down on them the grace of the Holy Spirit / and pour your love into their hearts, / that they may remain faithful in the marriage covenant. / May the grace of love and peace / abide in your daughter N., / and let her always follow the example of those holy women / whose praises are sung in the Scriptures.

May her husband entrust his heart to her, / so that, acknowledging her as his equal / and his joint heir to the life of grace, / he may show her due honor / and cherish her always / with the love that Christ has for his Church.

And now, Lord, we implore you: / may these your servants / hold fast to the faith and keep your commandments; / made one in the flesh, / may they be blameless in all they do; / and with the strength that comes from the Gospel, / may they bear true witness to Christ before all; / (may they be blessed with children, / and prove themselves virtuous parents, / who live to see their children's children).

And grant that, / reaching at last together the fullness of years / for which they hope, / they may come to the life of the blessed / in the Kingdom of Heaven. / Through Christ our Lord.

THE CONCLUSION OF THE CELEBRATION

May God the Eternal Father / keep you of one heart in love for one another / that the peace of Christ may dwell in you / and abide always in your home ... / All: Amen.

May you be blessed in your children / have solace in your friends / and enjoy true peace with everyone ... / All: Amen.

May you be witnesses in the world to God's charity / so that the afflicted and needy who have known your kindness / may one day receive you thankfully / into the eternal dwelling of God ... / All: Amen.

And may almighty God bless all of you, / who are gathered here, the Father, and the Son, + and the Holy Spirit ... / All: Amen.

GREETING

SPRINKLING WITH HOLY WATER

In the waters of Baptism, N. died with Christ and rose with him to new life. May he (she) now share with him eternal glory.

INVITATION TO PRAYER

My brothers and sisters, we believe that all the ties of friendship and affection which knit us as one throughout our lives do not unravel with death. Confident that God always remembers the good we have done and forgives our sins, let us pray, asking God to gather N. to himself.

OFFICE OF THE DEAD (28.2.2)

WHAT IS THE OFFICE OF THE DEAD?

The Church echoes with chants from ancient times. The Office of the Dead is taken from the Liturgy of the Hours. This form of prayer began with the desert monks in the second century. They prayed all 150 psalms within a short period. In time the lay faithful wanted to pray in the same way but couldn't afford hand-copied Bibles. By the tenth century, the form of praying all 150 psalms for the lay faithful became the 150 beads of the Rosary. This service is an echo of that ancient prayer. It is the origin of the Rosary. Today the Liturgy of the Hours, also called the Divine Office, is prayed by all priests and an increasing number of lay faithful. This prayer is so important that it is called the "Prayer of the Church." It is a liturgy, which means that when it is celebrated by the faithful led by a priest the entire Church, the body of Christ, is praying with it. In this prayer the congregation "dialogues" with one another from the right to the left. This dialogue is seen by the Church as the dialogue of Christ, the bridegroom, with the Church, his bride.

GREETING

Priest: God + come to my assistance.

All: Lord, make haste to help me.

Priest: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All: As it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen.

OPENING SONG

PSALM 121

Priest: The Lord will keep you from all evil. He will guard your soul.

All: The Lord will keep you from all evil. He will guard your soul.

I lift up my eyes to the mountains:
from where shall come my help?
My help shall come from the Lord
Who made heaven and earth.

May he never allow you to stumble!
Let him sleep not, your guard.
No, he sleeps not nor slumbers,
Israel's guard.

The Lord is your guard and your shade;
At your right side he stands.
By day the sun shall not smite you
Nor the moon in the night.

The Lord will guard you from evil,
He will guard your soul.
The Lord will guard your going and coming
Both now and forever.

Priest: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All: As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Priest: Lord God, in whom all find refuge, we appeal to your boundless mercy: grant to the soul of your servant N. a kindly welcome, cleansing from sin, release from the chains of death, and entry into everlasting life.

All: The Lord will keep you from all evil. He will guard your soul.

PSALM 130

Priest: If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

All: If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

Out of the depths I cry to you, O Lord,
Lord, hear my voice
O let your ears be attentive
To the voice of my pleading.

If you, O Lord, would mark our guilt,
Lord, who would survive?
But with you is found forgiveness:
For this we revere you.

My soul is waiting for the Lord,
I count on his word.
My soul is longing for the Lord
More than watchmen for daybreak.
Let the watchman count on daybreak
And Israel on the Lord.

Because with the Lord is mercy
And fullness of redemption
Israel indeed he will redeem
From all its iniquity.

Priest: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All: As it was in the beginning, is now and will be forever. Amen.

Priest: Lord God, you are attentive to the voice of our pleading. Let us find in your Son comfort in our sadness, certainty in our doubt, and courage to live through this hour. Make our faith strong through Christ our Lord.

All: If you kept a record of our sins, Lord, who could escape condemnation?

CANTICLE: PHILIPPIANS 2:6-11

Priest: As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wills.

All: As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wills.

Though he was in the form of God,
Jesus did not deem equality with God
Something to be grasped at.

Rather, he emptied himself
And took the form of a slave,
Being born in the likeness of men.

He was known to be of human estate,
And it was thus that he humbled himself,
Obediently accepting even death,
Death on a cross!

Because of this
God highly exalted him
And bestowed on him the name
Above every other name,

So that at Jesus' name
Every knee must bend
In the heavens, on the earth,
And under the earth,
And every tongue proclaim
To the glory of God the Father:

All: JESUS CHRIST IS LORD!

Priest: Glory to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

All: As it was in the beginning is now and will be forever. Amen.

All: As the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so the Son gives life to whom he wills.

RECESSIONAL HYMN/MUSIC

SUMMARY OF NORMS AND GRANTS PERTAINING TO INDULGENCES

THE FOUR GENERAL GRANTS OF INDULGENCES (P. 31–46)

A partial indulgence is granted to the Christian faithful who perform any of the following actions:

1. Raising the mind to God with humble trust when performing one's duties and bearing life's difficulty, and adding, at least mentally, some pious invocation.
2. Devoting oneself or one's goods compassionately in a spirit of faith to the service of one's brothers and sisters in need.
3. Freely abstaining in a spirit of penance from something licit and pleasant.
4. Freely giving open witness to one's faith before others in particular circumstances of everyday life.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING A PARTIAL INDULGENCE (#N17)

Partial indulgences can be acquired as often as one desires. To gain a partial indulgence, one must do the following. These are "the usual conditions" for receiving a partial indulgence:

1. Be in a state of grace (free of mortal sin) and not excommunicated.
2. Have a contrite heart for even venial sin.
3. Intend to receive the indulgence.
4. Perform the prescribed action of the indulgence.

CONDITIONS FOR GAINING A PLENARY INDULGENCE (#N18–#N20)

Plenary indulgences can be acquired only once each day for the same work (unless one is at the moment before death, in which case one may acquire the Apostolic Pardon). Plenary indulgences are much more demanding than partial indulgences, for they require one to do these "usual conditions" for receiving a plenary indulgence:

1. Have the intention of gaining the indulgence.
2. Receive sacramental confession within a reasonable amount of time (within one month) of the indulgence. A single sacramental confession suffices for gaining several plenary indulgences.
3. Receive Eucharistic communion on the same day as the indulgence.
4. Pray for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff. The condition of praying for the intention of the Sovereign Pontiff is fully satisfied by reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary; nevertheless, each one is free to recite any other prayer according to his piety and devotion.
5. It is further required that all attachment to sin, even venial sin, be absent. If the latter disposition is in any way less than perfect or if the prescribed three conditions are not fulfilled, the indulgence will be partial only.

VARIOUS INDULGENCES

ADSUMUS (PRAYER ASSOCIATED TO MEETINGS) (26.2)

We have come, O God the Holy Spirit, / we have come before Thee, / hampered indeed by our many and grievous sins, / but for a special purpose / gathered together in Thy name. / Come to us and be with us / and enter our hearts. / Teach us what we are to do / and where we ought to tend; / show us what we must accomplish, / in order that, with Thy help, / we may be able to please Thee in all things. / Be Thou alone the author / and the finisher of our judgments, / Thou who alone with God the Father and his Son / dost possess a glorious name. / Do not allow us to disturb the order of justice, / Thou who lovest equity above all things. / Let not ignorance draw us into devious paths. / Let not partiality sway our minds, / nor respect of riches nor persons pervert our judgment. / But unite us to Thee effectually / by the gift of Thy grace alone, / that we may be one in Thee / and never forsake the truth; / inasmuch as we are gathered together in Thy name, / so may we in all things / hold fast to justice tempered by mercy, / so that in this life / our judgment may in no wise be at variance with Thee / and in the life to come / we may attain everlasting rewards / for deeds well done.

Adsumus, Domine Sancte Spiritus, / adsumus peccati quidem immanitate detenti, / sed in nomine tuo specialiter congregati. / Veni ad nos / et esto nobiscum / et dignare illabi cordibus nostris; / doce nos quid agamus, / quo gradiamur et ostende quid efficere debeamus, / ut, te auxiliante, / tibi in omnibus placere valeamus. / Esto solus suggestor / et effector iudiciorum nostrorum, / qui solus cum Deo Patre / et eius Filio nomen possides gloriosum. / Non nos patiaris perturbatores / esse iustitiae qui summam diligis aequitatem; / non in sinistrum nos ignorantia trahat, / non favor inflectat, / non acceptio muneris vel personae corrumpat; / sed iunge nos tibi efficaciter solius tuae gratiae dono, / ut simus in te unum / et in nullo deviemus a vero; / quatenus in nomine tuo collecti, / sic in cunctis teneamus cum moderamine pietatis iustitiam, / ut et hic a te in nullo dissentiat sententia nostra / et in futurum pro bene gestis consequamur praemia sempiterna.
